Course Description

A review of grammar with continued use of listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills in French, all with a cultural emphasis.

General Information

FREN 2001, Intermediate French I, aims to build oral and written communication skills in French at the intermediate level and improve cultural awareness and literacy of the French-speaking world. FREN 2001 contributes to students' education in the humanities by teaching both the French language and the humanistic cultures of the French-speaking world.

Course learning outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Use French to communicate with peers and the instructor both orally and in writing to create a shared community experience.
2. Employ strategies to comprehend texts (in written, aural, and video form) written by and for French speakers.
3. Employ strategies to express ideas orally and in writing related to familiar topics in presentational contexts.
4. Employ strategies to express ideas in interpersonal contexts in culturally appropriate ways, including identifying and signaling comprehension breakdown, asking and answering questions, and requesting information.

5. Understand and communicate the basics of Francophone cultures, modes of life, and customs.
6. Develop intercultural awareness through the study of the similarities and differences among and the relationships between language and culture systems.
7. Be prepared to continue developing French language skills and cultural understanding in FREN 2002.

Required course materials:

Description of Graded Components

Participation (10%)

You are expected to attend class and participate, making meaningful contributions to the class.

Homework (30%)

VHL Online homework will include grammar & vocabulary tutorials and activities, cultural readings and Flash culture videos, lab activities. The homework needs to be done on a regular basis to help you understand new features in vocabulary and grammar (VHL preview activities) as well as to help consolidate your knowledge of vocabulary and grammar (VHL repetition activities) through additional practice. Cultural readings and videos will provide insights into French and Francophone ways of life, which will allow students to interpret the human experience in different cultural settings.

Unit tests (40%)

There will be 5 unit tests during the semester. They will test the knowledge gained upon the completion of each unit. All tests will follow the same format and include sections such as: listening, writing, grammar, vocabulary, and culture.

In-Class Presentation (10%)

Students will present, in class and in French, on a topic related to their Major. Clear guidelines with expectations will be shared with students in advance. Grading follows a rubric with the following criteria: adherence to the assignment's requirements, pronunciation, vocabulary (especially as it relates to their Major) and grammatical structures, creativity, and inclusion of relevant cultural elements.

Project (10%)

Students will complete a project, in French, based on a topic of their choice as they relate to the topics of the class. Clear guidelines with expectations will be shared with students in advance. Grading follows a rubric with the following criteria: adherence to the assignment's requirements, writing, pronunciation, vocabulary and grammatical structures, creativity, and inclusion of relevant cultural elements.

Grading Scale

Your final grade will be assigned as a letter grade according to the following scale:

A	90-100%
B	80-89%
C	70-79%
D	60-69%
F	0-59%
