Students enrolled at Georgia Tech signed an agreement acknowledging their awareness of the Academic Honor Code. They are strongly encouraged to seek a full understanding of their instructors' expectations regarding academic honor. You can find the Honor Code (with a listing of responsibilities in Sections 3 and 4) at <http://www.catalog.gatech.edu/rules/18/>

Core IMPACTS statement(s) (if applicable):

The Learning Outcomes satisfy the designated learning objectives for the Core IMPACTS Social Sciences area: “how political relationships develop, persist, and change,” and an understanding of “the complexity of human behavior as a function of the commonality and diversity within groups.”
