KOR 3002 is an advanced Korean II course designed for students who have completed KOR 2002 or demonstrate equivalent proficiency. Continuing instruction is provided in spoken and written Korean, with a particular emphasis on practicing accurate grammar and expanding vocabulary, as well as improving speaking and writing confidence at an advanced level. Further, the course also helps students to deepen their knowledge and understanding of Korean society and culture through the analysis of attractions of South Korea, history, film, literature, and Tetragram.

 Note: Native speakers (those who have attended formal schooling in South Korea for one or more years) are not eligible to enroll.

Course learning outcomes:

Upon successful completion of this course student will be able to:

1. Use Korean to communicate with peers and instructor both orally and in writing in order to create a shared community experience.
2. Employ strategies to comprehend texts written by and for Korean speakers (written, aural and video) in depth.
3. Employ strategies to express ideas orally and in writing related to familiar topics in presentational contexts in depth.

4. Employ strategies to express your ideas in interpersonal contexts in culturally appropriate ways in depth.
5. Demonstrate an understanding of their languages and cultures in relation to the practices, products, and perspectives of the culture(s) of Korean-speaking countries.
6. Develop intercultural awareness through the study of the similarities and differences among and the relationships between language and culture systems.
7. Be prepared to continue developing your Korean language skills and cultural understanding in KOR 3002.

Attendance & Participation 10

Description of Graded Components

Homework (35%)

- Grammar(100 pts) : Students will practice and reinforce their understanding of the unit's target grammar.
- Expression Practice (100 pts): Students will study key expressions related to the unit's cultural theme and respond to related questions.
- Reading (100 pts): Students will record themselves reading a provided text and answering comprehension questions based on the reading.
- Media & Reflection (100 pts): Students will watch an authentic media resource related to the unit's cultural topic and reflect on its content.

Presentation (25%)

- Midterm project (75 pts): Choose one of two options. More details are given in the Canvas: Mini-Report (individual presentation): 3 min. Topic will be given in advance OR Mini-Skit (pair work): 3 min. Open topic.
- Final project (100 pts): Choose one among three options. More details are given in the Canvas: Creating a website / Creating a dubbing video (3-4 min.) / Creating a class trailer, magazine, or poster

Examination (30%)

- Six Vocab Quizzes (20 pts): Given for each unit.
- Two Oral Quizzes (100 pts): Students will listen to the questions from an audio file recorded by the instructor and respond in front of the camera. The expected questions will be shared in advance so they can prepare and practice; however, they are not allowed to read from a script during the recording.

Attendance & Participation (10%)

- Attendance: Students who are absent because of participation in approved Institute activities (such as field trips, professional conferences, and athletic events) will be permitted to make up the work missed during their absences, but the anticipated absence should be notified to the instructor in advance. Otherwise, 5% will be taken off for each absence. Students must have fewer than 3 absences (both excused and unexcused) to receive a passing grade. A tardy (arriving more than 5 minutes late or leaving class early) will be counted as a half absence.
- Participation: Bottom-Line Rules: During class, students will not be permitted to work on homework, study for another class, use a laptop/phone for anything not class-related, etc. (See the Course Expectations & Guidelines below for more information)

Grading Scale

Your final grade will be assigned as a letter grade according to the following scale:

A 90-100% B 80-89% C 70-79% D 60-69% F 0-59%

Attendance policy:

Students who are absent due to participation in approved Institute activities (such as field trips, job interviews, professional conferences, or athletic events) will be permitted to make up any work missed during their absences. However, the anticipated absence must be communicated to the instructor in advance. Up to two absences will be excused. Beyond that, 5% will be deducted for each additional absence. Students must have fewer than seven total absences (including both excused and unexcused) to receive a passing grade. A tardy (arriving more than five minutes late or leaving class early) will be counted as one-half of an absence.

Bottom-Line Rules: During class, students will not be permitted to work on homework, study for another class, use a laptop/phone for anything not class-related, etc. (See the Course Expectations & Guidelines below for more information)

Academic honesty/integrity statement:

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. All work submitted must be original and properly cited. Plagiarism, cheating, or any form of academic dishonesty will result in immediate consequences as outlined in the university's academic integrity policy.
