Course description:

This class combines classroom discussion with Hispanic community service projects to allow students to study Hispanic cultures and practice Spanish with native speakers. Conducted in Spanish.

Course learning outcomes:

1. Students will explain key aspects of the Latino immigrant experience in the U.S.—including laws, policies, societal attitudes, and common stereotypes—and analyze how these factors shape the daily lives of Latino immigrants in Atlanta, Georgia, and the U.S.
2. Students will improve language proficiency by effectively communicating with Latino community members during their 36 hours of service-learning, using appropriate vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation.
3. Students will critically reflect on their own assumptions, biases, and cultural positioning by producing written and oral reflections that connect course content to their experiences in the Latino community.
4. Students will apply professional, ethical, and culturally responsive practices while working with local Latino-serving organizations, demonstrating intercultural empathy and competence.
5. Students will evaluate how immigration laws and policies and community resource allocation impact Latino populations locally. Students will propose evidence-based recommendations and action steps to support equitable outcomes in the Atlanta area.
