Academic honesty/integrity statement:

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. All work submitted must be original and properly cited. Plagiarism, cheating, or any form of academic dishonesty will result in immediate consequences as outlined in the university's academic integrity policy.

Any evidence of cheating or other violations of the Georgia Tech Honor Code may be submitted directly to the Office of Student Integrity. Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- Using an unapproved calculator, books, or any form of notes on tests.
- Collaborating during an in-person or online test.
- Using any third-party websites (such as, but not limited to, ChatGPT, Symbolab, Integral-Calculator, Chegg and CourseHero) to obtain answers to graded problems.
- Copying directly from any source, including friends, classmates, tutors, internet sources, or a solutions manual.
- Allowing another person to copy your work.
- Taking a test or turning in an assignment in someone else's name or having someone else take a test or turn in an assignment in your name.
- Asking for a regrade of a paper that has been altered from its original form.
- Using someone else's account to gain attendance or assignment points for them, or asking someone else to use your account for any graded assignment or attendance submission.
