Course description:

KOR 2002, Intermediate Korean II, aims to build oral and written communication skills in Korean at the intermediate level and improve cultural awareness and literacy of the Korean-speaking world. KOR 2002 contributes to students' education in the humanities by teaching both the Korean language and the humanistic cultures of the Korean-speaking world.

 Note: Native speakers (those who have attended formal schooling in South Korea for one or more years) are not eligible to enroll.

The Korean program in the School of Modern Languages requires students to be placed in language courses that align with their proficiency levels. Students are responsible for accurately informing instructors about their language abilities. Native Korean students with more than two years of formal education (K-12) in South Korea are not eligible to take any KOR 1XXX, 2XXX, or 3XXX courses, except for KOR classes taught in English (e.g., KOR 3415, 3410). Any student who provides false information will be dropped from the course with a grade of "F," which will remain on their transcript.

Academic honesty/integrity statement:

Students are expected to maintain the highest standards of academic integrity. All work submitted must be original and properly cited. Plagiarism, cheating, or any form of academic dishonesty will result in immediate consequences as outlined in the university's academic integrity policy.
